

Emergency Accident Relief Centres:(EARC)

The Emergency Accident Relief Centre have been introduced in TamilNadu by the Relief Centres has been commenced The Scheme of Emergency Accident Relief Centres has been commenced on 21.11.2002 at Mamandoor and Sriperumbudur. Considering the phenomenal increase in vehicular population contributing to increase in road accidents, 100 Emergency Accident Relief Centres have been established on all the important National and State Highways, to give first aid to the accident victims within the "golden hour" and to arrange for further treatment through the nearby referral hospitals as per victim's choice.

Each centre has an ambulance to respond to the accident cases with essential drugs, paramedical staff and driver available round the clock making it convenient for public to access these centres through a toll free Phone number 1073.Out of the 100 centres, 18 Centres are functioning at present. 12 Centres are fully sponsored by private hospitals, institutions and non-government organizations and 6 centres are partially funded with the financial assistance from Government.
